Alcantara has more in the 2:20 list than any stallion of his age ever had, 20 of which entered in 1890.

HALCANTARA'S second dam, Heel and Toe (trotting), 2:20, Jewett, 2:14. If you will trace this colt's breeding you will find that he has THREE NOTED BROOD MARES on his dam's side, viz. Heel and Toe, Fanny, Julia, and Dorya, which is a very rare thing to find in a stallion's pedigree.

HE WILL MAKE THE SEASON OF 1891 AT $25.00.

Mares not proving with foal can be returned free next year.

These Stallions will be at Nutwood Stock Farm (formerly Delos Jones farm) after April 1, 1891.

HURRAH

FOR THIS OFFER.

COL. KIP,

Record, 2:30. Standard, 14,405.

He is the only Stallion except Gilling, standing for service in Addison County with a record in the 2:30 list. He won his record in a race of five horses at Belmont Park, Philadelphia, July 15, 1890, for a purse of $500, which he won in a four heat race, although he was too heavy, but his natural pique and speed combined outlasted them all and took him to the front. The next day but one he started in another race at Belmont Park for a purse of $500, in which he won second money in a race of eight horses, driving the winner out in 2:20 and took a heat from him and he was close to the winner's wheel in this race in the last heat of a race of eight horses and all of them fast. Although he was too heavy and not in first-class trotting condition he showed himself game and a fighter in these races. Col. Kip was sired by Aristos, record 2:27, and his dam Laura, formerly Lady Champion, in turn has trotted in 2:32. For further pedigree see in another ad in this paper. He is a beautiful seal brown in color; he stands 15 1/2 hands high; weight, about 1100 pounds, and is a sure footed getter; his service is first class. He will be found at the stable of J. W. PECK, West Cornwall, Vt., for the season of 1891 at the very low sum of $25 to insure in foal. Up to April 15 he had 27 mares booked and his book keeps filling. Anyone finding any misrepresentation in this ad., otherwise than through some technicality, can have the service of Col. Kip free of charge.

County News.

BRIDPORT.

The listers met on Tuesday to hear the aggrieved ones.

Butter brought from 22 to 23 cents this week, with selections at 24 cents.

N. W. Russell, who has been ill the past two weeks, is now improving.

J. S. C. Hamilton announces by cablegram his safe arrival at Sidney, Australia.

We had a heavy frost on Monday and Tuesday mornings, that froze water in places.

The Black Hawk stock farm is advertised for sale at auction on Tuesday, May 19.

The village school, with Mrs. Searle as teacher, opened on Monday with a full attendance.

Albert Kingsland, who is attending school in Middlebury, is sick with a complication of mumps and measles.

The personal property belonging to the estate of the late J. S. Williams was disposed of at auction, as advertised, on Wednesday.

Rev. V. B. Goodwin, who has preached here the past year, is soon to go to other fields, and Rev. Jesse Brown will preach to the Methodists here and in Shoreham, he having recently been appointed by the Troy conference.

The going through the town, as far as roughness is concerned, could not be worse. The highways running north and south have been scraped and are quite passable, but the cross-roads, especially that towards Middlebury, is damming to man as well as to horse and vehicle. The road-scraper and a little time thrown in would make a big showing in such places in filling the ruts, sink holes, etc.

CORNWALL.

P. N. Cobb, who has been sick since last November, is able to get about somewhat.

L. Hall is again seen upon the streets gathering cream for the Jones' butter factory at Sudbury.

Miss Anna Foote intends to start on Saturday for an extended trip in the West. She has made plans to attend the national convention of Y. P. S. C. E., to be held at Minneapolis in July. She will then go to Colorado to visit her brother and sisters residing there.

WEST CORNWALL.

The teacher and scholars in district No. 5 spent a part of the forenoon of Arbor day raking their school-house yard and clearing up generally.

Roy Bingham, who went last fall to Battle Creek, Mich., is now in Chicago, Ill., in the employ of Dickinson Haskell, brother of B. F. Haskell of this place.

There was high wind all day Monday and part of the following night and since then it has been cold. On Wednesday it rained some, with indications of snow.

Miss Anna Bingham arrived home on Tuesday evening from a trip to Cleveland, where she has been for several weeks with her uncle, Lucien Bingham, and family.

SHOREHAM.

C. N. North started on Monday night for New York to purchase goods.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mary Parker and Chet. Savary, May 12.

School opened at Newton academy on Monday morning, with Albert Norton, A. B., as teacher.

The Congregational parsonage, having been furnished by the ladies, is now occupied by Rev. Smith Norton and wife.

Frank Plumley, United States district attorney, was in town on Monday looking up the title to a piece of land purchased of John Leonard by the government as a site for a lighthouse on Lake Champlain.

WEYBRIDGE.

Mrs. L. Rivers is quite ill with influenza.

H. H. Hurlbut and wife returned home on Thursday.

Rev. J. L. Fort has returned and will preach next Sunday, May 10.

A. J. Stow had an attack of the grip last week and also a horse kick, which two combined confined him to his bed a part of a day.

All are requested to attend the burying-ground meeting this week Saturday evening, May 9. It is proposed to raise a tax for repairs and improvements.

Frank Hurlbut, formerly of this place, but now clerk in the post office at Proctor, was here over Sunday. He was accompanied by his brother John and his father, Col. W. B. Hurlbut.

Mrs. David P. Hurlbut of Round Lake gave a fine talk at the social meeting at the M. E. church on Sunday evening. Mrs. H. is very highly honored and loved by all who have known her here in her native town.

On Tuesday W. C. Sturtevant's horse "Fred" broke his hind leg, hatched at the Huntington homestead and ran home, a distance of two and a half miles. No harm came, only a crossbar broken just as he entered the shed at home.

Wm. Warner of Horicon, N. Y., was found dead in his bed at his brother's, Martin Warner, on Tuesday morning last. He had been visiting his son at Johnson, Vt., and had been quite ill there, but, becoming better, he came to his brother's the night before, on his way home. He retired at about 10 p. m.

feeling somewhat better. In the morning, not hearing anything from him, Mr. Warner went to his room and called and finally opened the door and found him dead. He had evidently sat down on the bed and made an effort to remove his vest and fell over backwards across the bed, his feet resting on the floor. There was no sign of any struggle and his death was undoubtedly instantaneous. Telegrams were sent to his family at home and his children at different points in this State. His daughter from Wallingford arrived on the 3:30 p. m. train. He is said to have been a farmer and an official member of the M. E. church at his place of 30 years standing and very zealous in religious matters.

VERGENNES.

The railroad survey is to begin this week.

Dr. Pilon has moved into the Duquette house near the city hall.

Obadiah Allen of Ferrisburgh has sold to Rev. P. C. Dayfoot 55 acres of land for $1550.

A child of William Plude and wife, aged four weeks, died on Friday last of pneumonia.

George Belter went to Boston on Monday and Frank Cobb to Springfield, Mass., Tuesday.

Mrs. H. J. Parker and child of New York are guests at Herriek Stevens', Mrs. Parker's father.

D. H. Buck, a watchman at the Reform school, has resigned, and been succeeded by Carl Robbins of Rutland.

Slack & Rogers, proprietors of Fulton market, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Slack will continue the business.

Mrs. Harry Adams, who has been visiting relatives on the Pacific coast and in Wisconsin, arrived home on Friday.

Miss Julia Whalen of Montpelier has taken rooms at Mrs. F. W. Coe's and gone into the dressmaking business.

The steamer Water Lily made a trip to Westport on Thursday and Saturday of last week. She will begin regular trips soon.

Arbor day, May 1, a few trees were planted, some flowers were gathered by the school children and several fish were caught.

Coles & Bradford of Middleboro, Mass., horse buyers, purchased nine horses here last week, shipping them on Monday.

George W. Bradbury of Boston, formerly a resident of Vergennes, is stopping for a few days at the Bradbury homestead.

Rev. J. B. Daniels of Hamilton seminary, New York, preached at the Baptist church Sunday last, and will preach also on Sunday next.

Miss Hattie E. Stevens of Chelsea, teacher in the graded school, has resigned. Miss A. J. Stacy of Hinesburgh is to succeed her.

G. H. Sprigg & Co. shipped a car of sheep and calves to the Boston market on Friday, and D. O. Noonan a car of cows and calves on Monday.

George F. O. Kimball of Boston, formerly a resident here, arrived in town on Saturday for a week's stay. The family will spend the summer in town.

Fred Ladd of Milton and Miss Emma Hines of Vergennes were married at the Methodist church on Tuesday at 4 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. W. P. Rutison.

Saturday, market day, butter sold for 22 and 23 cents; eggs, 13 cents; dressed poultry, 13 to 15 cents; hay, 87 to 88; pork and beef, 86 to 87 per hundred.

Stephen Bates started for New York on Monday with three horses for Col. Walter Scranton, which were purchased of D. H. Lewis, cashier of the Farmers' national bank.

A meeting of the stockholders of the New England Land Improvement company was held at the Vergennes national bank on Tuesday. The investments are in land at Decatur, Ala.

Rev. Aaron Clark, wife and children, who have been located at the Rosebud agency, So. Dakota, for some time, arrived here on Friday last and are guests of C. A. Booth and family, relatives.

At a firemen's meeting on Thursday evening it was voted that the Stevens and Volunteer Hose companies and the Hook and Ladder company would attend the State firemen's meeting at Rutland, July 4.

"The Spy of Shiloh," a military drama, is to be given at School-house hall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. Half fare on the railroad is given from Rutland to Burlington, inclusive.

Charles A. Smith, aged 69, was found dead in his horse barn on Thursday morning of last week. Heart disease was the probable cause. The funeral was on Saturday, Rev. H. G. Pillsbury officiating.

COUNTY AND VICINITY NOTES.

Leicester people observed Arbor day at the Corners by setting out trees with the object of having a park there.

It is said that five of the six miles of the Bristol railroad is ready for the rails. Ties have not been laid on the remainder.

Ansel Chadwick, who died at his home in Granville April 15 at the age of 83 years, was a resident of Hancock for 30 years, moving thence to Granville 20 years ago.

A deer about a year old was found in Granville the other day suffering from wounds caused by jumping on a barbed wire fence. Several deer have yarded in that vicinity this winter.

The best medium in New England in which to advertise for summer boarders is the Boston Transcript. Send for rates.

PERSONAL.

Secretary Proctor has been at his Vermont home the past week.

Ex-Secretary of State Porter of Montpelier is on his way to the Azores. He goes for his health, which has been seriously impaired for several months.

The office of the Self-Help and Home Study, which has been in Boston, is to be removed at once to Burlington. Mr. James Buckham, eldest son of President Buckham, is one of the publishers of the paper.

The Cincinnati Enquirer thus described Congressman Powers in the report of the national Republican league convention: "Judge H. H. Powers of Vermont, who may succeed Senator Edmunds, is a square-built man, with iron-gray hair and side whiskers. He has the solid look of Windom."

The New York Press says: "There is a very animated discussion going on in Minnesota over the question whether flax and hemp fibre can be raised in that region. Mr. Charles N. Bell, a member of the Minnesota legislature, who has introduced a bill to give a bounty of two cents per pound to encourage the manufacture of binding twine and the raising of flax and hemp, is so confident of the future of the textile fabric business in Minnesota that in December last he sent a bale of 112 pounds of fibre, prepared by Mr. Boose of St. Paul Park, to a large linen mill in Belfast, Ireland. His faith has been confirmed by receipt of a letter from the manufacturers saying that the production of fibre for shipment to Ireland should be undertaken on a large scale in Minnesota. The 112 pounds of fibre sent was dressed down to 85 pounds, and thus prepared had a value of $65 English money, or $325 per ton. The linen products of this lot of fibre will be forwarded to St. Paul as soon as possible." The Mr. Bell mentioned by the Press is a Middlebury boy, whom many of our readers know. He graduated from the college in the class of 1888.

A STRIKE AT BARRE.

Nearly 400 granite quarrymen are out on strike at Barre, the cause being their employers' refusal to discriminate between union and non-union workmen. If the strike holds on it will throw 2000 granite cutters out of employment. Present indications are that the differences between the employers and their men will be adjusted amicably.

BOARD OF TRADE NOTES.

The persons desiring to start a paper mill were expected here on Tuesday to look over the town's inducements, but wrote that they could not both leave home that day. They said, however, that they would come at an early day.

The Massachusetts manufacturer of reed work who, it was thought, might be persuaded to locate here, writes that he does not on mature consideration believe it advisable to remove so far from his markets. He offers to recommend a competent man to run such a business here, provided local capital can be interested.

Rutland, St. Johnsbury, Bradford and his own town of Thetford all want Mr. Chubb, the fishing-rod manufacturer who was burned out at Post Mills, Thetford, a few months ago. Bradford, it is reported, offered him $12,000, cash, to come, and Thetford will exempt him from taxation for ten years if he will stay there.

SMITH STILL MISSING.

No trace has yet been found of Edward Smith, the Pittsford farmer who disappeared from Rutland two weeks ago last night. Several clues were obtained and followed up, but all proved worthless. Two Rutland men came up to Salisbury on Sunday, on the strength of information furnished by Mrs. H. J. Hyde of that town, and spent the day trying to make out something. But they did not get much satisfaction. This description of Mr. Smith is furnished by Sheriff Peabody of Rutland, who has had charge of the search: "He is about 40 years old, thick set, about 5 feet 10 inches, weighs about 200 pounds, head bald on top, dark mustache streaked with gray. He wore a black stiff hat, round top; black suit, dark overcoat, light weight; congress shoes, white shirt, black necktie and diamond pin. His undershirt was drab gauze, his drawers white of lightish weight, his stockings white and ribbed at the top. He wore linen cuffs, size No. 11, stamped "Director of the Mint;" turn-down linen collar, size 17 1/2, white linen shirt, collar 17 1/2."

EXTRAORDINARY WEATHER.

The weather the past week has been as noteworthy for its unseasonable coldness as was that of the preceding three weeks for its warmth. It snowed on Saturday and on Tuesday and Wednesday. Hereabouts it melted when it fell, but up on the mountains there were three or four inches of snow on the ground on a recent morning. Sunday night and again Tuesday night there were hard frosts, which, it is feared, damaged the buds on fruit trees.

The low temperature was not peculiar to this region. A special weather bulletin from Washington says unusually cold weather prevailed Tuesday morning throughout the entire northern part of the country east of the Missouri and Mississippi rivers, the line of freezing temperature extending from southern Maine westward through western New York and northern Ohio and including the States of Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota. In southeastern Michigan the temperature was the lowest on record for this season of the year. Severe frosts are reported throughout these regions, probably causing considerable injury to fruit and early vegetation.

A New Jersey weather sharp predicts a snowstorm in New England May 28.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends who so kindly assisted in caring for our father and mother during their illness, and also for the many thoughtful services rendered after their death.
